IELTS essay sample Watching sports on television affects

Nowadays, youngsters are showing too much interest in watching sporting events on television. Some people believe that instead of watching games on television, teenagers should play sports to maintain good health. I agree with this view. If young people spend too much time watching sports on TV, it will definitely have an adverse impact on their health. However, I don t think that sports shows are the only culprits here. Several other factors also affect the health of youngsters.
